TPE Gloves

Gloves TPE

TPE Gloves Often referred to as a vinyl hybrid. The TPE hand has a comfortable fit and improved dexterity compared to traditional polyethylene gloves. Has a lightly structured surface to provide better grip and are known for their durability and resilience, which makes them a cost-effective alternative if you use large volumes of gloves. Popular uses can be catering, beauty salons and various food environments. - Disposable - Synthetic silky gloves - Latex Free - Sizes :S-XL - 200 pcs per package
